Former Decorated Police Officer, Vietnam Veteran, and current Civil Rights Instructor, Terry Ingram, reveals Ten secrets the Police don’t want you to know. Terry’s 40 years of experience on both sides of the fence give him a singularly unique perspective on "How to Survive Police Encounters" in this day and age. A must read for anyone trying to cope in the current Police State and more. Finally, the truth is revealed about what really goes on inside the mind of a Police Officer. Forget about the mainstream mottos like "serve and protect"; "community service"; and other boilerplate mantras spoon fed to the public by Law Enforcement Public Relation Pundits. Take it from a 12 year Decorated Police veteran in Robbery Homicide, Vice, Intelligence, Narcotics, K-9 and routine Uniformed Patrol. The Policeman is definitely no longer your friend. He is your adversary. Just like the salesman who hones his skills to close the deal, the Police Officer is a very practiced and dangerous antagonist to anyone who stands in the way of the Police State. Many Police Officers initially go into their chosen field with good and decent intentions. However, after intense paramilitary indoctrination they are soon turned to the dark side (Away from the Constitution and Bill of Rights and toward the Police State). This is not an overstatement; those that won’t be turned find themselves back on the street. Most Police Departments have a 1 year probationary period where the Officer is not protected by a civil service contract. During that year, even the best of them are broken or discarded. The New Breed, that’s what they called us when I attended the very first Police Academy in South Florida, back in early 1974. The idea was to militarize the New Breed by creating a Boot Camp of sorts. Believe me when I say that they have come a long way down the slippery slope since my day. I pass by the Police Academy in Davie, Florida rather frequently and see them [Police Inductees I call them] marching, standing at attention, assuming the prone position and giving the instructor 50 pushups on demand. It sickens me. This book is a must read for anyone confronting any type of Police Encounter in today’s Police State. It is imperative that you learn your rights, because that’s the only way you’re going to stop them. Whether in your car, home or out in the community, they are always there watching and waiting for you to make the slightest mistake. They are the sharks in the water and you are the bloody bait. We have indeed entered a new regime.
Contrary to what some people believe, the police cannot just do whatever they want. There are protocols involved. For instance, at the checkpoints, they must advertise in advance where those checkpoints are. Wiki will disagree, but this guy is the expert. And if an officer doesn’t have a basis to believe you are suspicious of a crime, you can walk away, and if they arrest you on the basis that you walked away, and they have no basis to believe you’ve done something wrong you can sue—this is true in 48 States. However, by voluntarily cooperating, if you don’t need to, you have just waived your rights. Having said this, they will come up with excuses to try to persuade you to cooperate. 'It’ll go better with you if you cooperate', is nonsense, they just want you to waive your rights. 'We are only here to protect the vulnerable', nonsense. The police need to fine people to continue paying their staff. This book is written in a very hands on manner. I was able to read it in about 2 hours. Also keep in mind that this applies to the US, I’m not sure how much of it applies to other countries. Although I’m sure that it would apply to some extent, cause there needs to be something to keep the police in check. Which reminds me, here in NZ they need fines to keep functioning. If it's not an emergency, and if their is no fine involved, they will ignore your victim request, unless you keep on pushing it, at least that’s what my experiences have shown.

I love this book! I purchased this book on Mr. Ingram’s website after watching his Youtube Videos. Although you may be able to find all the information that his book is based on through the internet(Law & Constitution), you can spare yourself the agony of having to rake through all that "Lefty" muck and mire. Mr. Ingram brings to the table a hands-on practical aspect that you won't get from someone who hasn't lived it. Unlike some, Mr. Ingram doesn't take himself too serious. As a retired Police Detective, he is able to take a joke like: "all cops are Pr*cks, I am a recovering Pr*ck". I thought this book was well laid out and a good reference resource. I am waiting for his next book or better yet a course for us laymen.

Excellent tips and information about the law and our rights that ALL American citizens should be aware of.I wish that Terry Ingram had elaborated a little more on his points, but in spite if this, Police State has a wealth of valuable information that you really need to be aware of regarding police. Also visit flexyourrights.com

Terry Ingram gives us an insiders view of how modern day law enforcement thinks and works. He educates us on the shenanigans these dirty, double-dealing from the bottom of the deck tricksters are up to. The over all theme of his teachings is "knowledge IS power." Do yourself a favor, buy this book and look for his videos on YT and educate yourself. Your going to be amazed at what you will learn. A must read.

I really liked reading this book. Its easy to read and the author breaks down your rights with dealing with law enforcement. I have never had any run in with law enforcement, but now after reading this book, I am more aware of my rights under the law. He gives example of your rights along with court cases that back up your rights. The author also has a youtube channel where he goes over some of the material in this books.

I love it when freedom triumphs over tyranny! especially when a cop exposes the corruption of the system after joining thinking they will be fighting for truth and justice and are sadly mistaken. Terry Ingram takes justice back by hitting us with how to defend ourselves from cops who would rather follow commie orders and profit off tyranny than defend actual truth and justice.

My best advice to anyone is not to get yourself into the kind of positions the book covers, but if for some reason you do find yourself on "the wrong side of the law" it isn't a bad idea to have some understanding of how the whole process works; particularly what NOT to say or do. The author does a good job of covering all the basics or what to expect and how to act when dealing with law enforcement agencies that might not have your best interests involved. No matter what, the book is an easy read and the topic is certainly interesting.

Anything educational and informative in regards to the dealings of life deserves 5 stars. This book is simply the bases of what people experience everyday when being confronted by the law and if only they knew just a few of these tidbits the chances of the situation going in their favor I would say is highly likely.

Download to continue reading...

Police State - Ten Secrets The Police Don't Want You To Know! "How To Survive Police Encounters!" THE NARCISSIST'S SECRETS: (Know the things they don't want you to know!) Guerrilla Tactics for the GRE: Secrets and Strategies the Test Writers Don't Want You to Know Student Loan Secrets: "They" Don't Want You To Know About Mentalist Secrets Revealed: The Book Mentalists Don't Want You To See! Fantasy Football for Smart People: What the Experts Don't Want You to Know The Secret To Solo Queue: What They Don't Want You To Know Police Oral Board Secrets: Tips on How to Become a Police Officer Gypsy Wedding Dreams: Ten dresses. Ten Dreams. All the secrets revealed. Police Radar Basics: Everything Every Driver, and the Police, should know about Traffic Speed Radar Raising Twins: What Parents Want to Know (and What Twins Want to Tell Them) So You Want to be a Dog Breeder. What’s Next?: Things You Need to Know Before You Start SECOND PASSPORTS Special Report #1 (Secrets Big Brother Doesn't Want You To Know About!) Pass It on: What We Know...What We Want You to Know Wine Pairing: 7 Wine Secrets You Wish You Knew: How to Translate a Restaurants Wine List (France, Australia, California, New Zealand, Napa, Red, Champagne, ... you need to know about wine Book 1) Planet Law School II: What You Need to Know (Before You Go), But Didn't Know to Ask... and No One Else Will Tell You, Second Edition Never Out of Season: How Having the Food We Want When We Want It Threatens Our Food Supply and Our Future How God Makes Men: Ten Epic Stories. Ten Proven Principles. One Huge Promise for Your Life. The Ten Cash Commentary:: The General Issue Ten Cash Coins of the Republic of China Ten Years Younger: The Amazing Ten Week Plan to Look Better, Feel Better, and Turn Back the Clock

Dmca